

Executive Summary

Introduction

The Evansville-Henderson area is experiencing a healthy level of economic growth and prosperity. Along with this growth and prosperity comes increased demands upon the transportation system and the environment. It is the job of the metropolitan planning organization, or MPO, to recognize these important relationships for a transportation system that will accommodate the needs of residents, businesses, and visitors.

The Evansville Urban Transportation Study (EUTS) 2006-2008 Transportation Improvement Program (TIP) provides an ambitious schedule of transportation improvements that will both enhance the current system and provide for future growth. In addition, the overall program is designed to contribute to the area-wide goal of cleaner air. This program includes improvements to the system of roadways, transit, bridges, and bicycle/pedestrian facilities.

Total Cost

The total cost of all projects and programs included in FY 2006-2008 is $323 million, of which $236 million will be federally funded, $54 million will be state funded, and $33 million will be locally funded.
